

Thanks to Bill Moyers Friday night broadcast, I became aware of the decision the FCC will make this year regarding the rules on media concentration. It is a real shame that the public has not had more exposure and debate regarding this decision. I for one say that limits should continue to be imposed, to restrict the amount of power a single corporation could have on TV, radio and newspaper markets.